Manager's Report 5/22/2020

By Bill Lawrence

Feeding Tampa Bay will be back in Bowling Green June 27 at the First Baptist Church starting at 10:00 a.m.

A special shout out to Vicky! Vicky has had to tolerate me for the past 13 months with operating in a new budget, expense reports and invoice system. Our communication has been great and the City benefits since we are operating with a surplus for the first time.

City Hall will be open after Memorial Day May 26th with special conditions.

1. Only one customer will be allowed in the lobby at a time.
2. Facemask will be required.
3. Customers will have to wait 6ft. apart until it is their turn.
4. Appointments will be required for cemetery, sign-off's, faxes, notaries and other items that require a longer wait time.

5. Customers will still have the option to use our over-the-phone, online and drop box payment options.

Office Staff

1. Employee must wear facemask and gloves when dealing with customers.
2. Front office will be sanitized between customers.

3. Readbox will be stocked as necessary for customers to utilize for payments and will be sanitized every 30 minutes or as time permits.

Carmen Silva, City Clerk
